

SAFEGUARDING TRAINING

The Diocese of Oxford strongly promotes good safeguarding practice, in order to create a safe and secure environment within our churches, where all feel safe and valued. Our belfries are part of this safe community and the ODG aims to implement best safeguarding practice, offering training that supports its members in responding to possible incidents of abuse.

Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility.

Whilst not compulsory, there are two training modules which raise awareness available on line (C0 and C1). These can be accessed through the Church of England portal and are available to any interested parties.

The C2 module is essential for ALL Tower Captains and trainers.

Even if you have no young or vulnerable people in your tower at the present time it is still desirable to do this. Some parishes will be offering this training in house but, if this not available to you, the ODG are offering an opportunity for training and a general catch up with other leaders again this year.

Safeguarding E-Learning - Online Training

The two on line training modules, C0 and C1, are available through the Church of England Safeguarding Training Portal: <https://safeguardingtraining.cofeportal.org/>

The C0 module is designed to raise basic awareness of safeguarding issues and therefore is applicable to all.

After completing the basic module, there is a C1 Foundation module available both online and face-to-face in some parishes. Both should be completed before attending C2 training.
