Foundation Skills Practice

Foundation Skills are the extra things a learner needs to be able to do once they can control their bell but before they can tackle plain hunt, such as changing speed at backstroke, counting places and rope-sight. These sessions use a number of fun rounds-based exercises to help learners develop their Foundation Skills.

Thursday 19th September: 7.00 – 8.30pm

Aston Tirrold: OX11 9DJ (6) 11-2-23

To book a place, please contact Susan Read, Branch Training Officer: training-officer@onb.odg.org.uk

Afternoon Branch Practice

Wednesday 25th September: 2.00 – 3.30pm

Childrey: OX12 9UR (8) 12-0-4

Do you need help with learning a method or want to improve your striking?

Then please come along to the afternoon practice

Don't forget:

Wednesday 2nd October: Surprise Major practice at East Ilsley

Monday 7th October: Evening Branch practice at North Moreton

Wednesday 23rd October: Afternoon Branch practice at Marcham

Everybody always welcome
